

Eelgrass Program Registration

It's a Jungle Out There: Classroom Presentation & Activity

Discover the importance of eelgrass beds found in the Puget Sound in this 1.5 hour classroom presentation. After discussing why and how marine organisms use these underwater meadow-like habitats, students will construct models of eelgrass beds. Students will then identify ways to protect this fragile environment.

Grades: 2-6.

Please fill out the following registration form and email to programs@envsciencecenter.org

Or mail to the address at the bottom of the page.

School Name:

School Address:

Teachers Names:

Contact Email:

School Phone #:

Grade: _____

Total # of students: _____

Classroom Presentation Date:

Time (1.5 hrs):

Free or Reduced Lunch Rate: _____ %

Costs: With a rate > 50%, the Environmental Science Center will waive the cost of the course. Without a waiver, total program cost is $75 for this 1.5 hour program.

Materials Cost: If ESC delivers more than one program to a class that qualifies for Free ESC courses in the school semester; then a $25 materials fee will be charged per class.

Billing: An invoice will be sent upon final schedule confirmation for this course.

Thank you!

"Our programs conform to the 2009 Scientific Field Investigations specified in the OPSI."