

Volunteer Application Form

ESC Mission: The Environmental Science Center promotes environmental stewardship and academic achievement through science-based education. Serving South King County since 2000.

Volunteer Purpose Statement: The Environmental Science Center engages volunteers of all backgrounds and skill sets to work as partners to increase community awareness of environmental and sustainability issues and to support academic achievement. Volunteers contribute their time, skills, talents, and knowledge to promote visibility of the organization, and to share the experience of ESC's programs with the public. Through this partnership volunteers will grow as environmental stewards, and will gain the skills and behaviors necessary for engaging a socially responsible community.
