

Join the Environmental Science Center, Sustainable Burien, and Stewardship Partners for a FREE workshop!

RAIN BARRELS TO RAIN GARDENS: RAINWATER STRATEGIES TO ENHANCE YOUR YARD

Tuesday, May 15, 2012, 6:00pm - 8:00pm
Burien Library- Multipurpose Room

400 SW 152nd Street ☀ Burien, WA 98166

Don't miss this opportunity to learn all about creating sustainable and rain-friendly landscaping features! This free workshop will focus on environmentally conscious yard care and rain garden design including construction techniques, plant selection, soil texture, cost considerations and maintenance. Join guest speaker Marilyn Jacobs from Rain Dog Designs for expert advice on enhancing your yard.

To register contact:

Jennifer Dumlao at 206-248-4266 or email Outreach@EnvScienceCenter.org

The Environmental Science Center promotes environmental stewardship, sustainability, and academic achievement through science-based education. Serving South King County since 2000.

A special thanks to our generous supporters:

